Blessed Chiara Luce Badano

A beautiful, extroverted, lively girl, in love with God. But the beauty of God's plan for her life becomes shinningly apparent in the last two years of her illness. Chiara's brief life showed us how much one person can accomplish in God's name.

"I have nothing left, but I still have my heart, and with that I can always love."

Date of birth: October 29, 1971
Birthplace: Sassello, Italy
Died: October 7, 1990
Age: 18
Feast day October 29

the wait

1971

Chiara Badano was born on October 29, to Ruggiero and Maria Theresa Badano in Sassello, Italy.

The couple waited and prayed 11 years to have Chiara. She was to be their only child.

While Ruggiero worked as a truck driver, Maria Theresa stayed at home to raise Chiara.

childhood

Even at the age of four, Chiara seemed aware of the needs of others. She would sort through her toys to give some to poor children, and would never give away just the old or broken ones.

1980

She discovers the Focolare movement. This group, especially its founder's Chiara Lubich, had a profound impact on Chiara's life.

adolescence

She was popular amongst her friends. Chiara loved to hang out in coffee shops. She was great at tennis, swimming and hiking, she loved to sing and dance. Her dream is to become a flight attendant.

sickness

1988

While playing tennis, she felt a sharp pain in her shoulder. It turned out to be bone cancer.

1989

In February, she undergoes her first surgery. She accepts the outcome courageously. "I'm young. I'm sure I'll make it,"

In July, the tumour spreads quickly. She loses the use of her legs.

When she suffered, she felt closer to Jesus. She would say, "It's for you, Jesus; if You want it, I want it too."

departure

When Chiara realized that she was not going to get better, she started to plan for her "wedding" (her funeral) with her mother.

She chose the music, songs, flowers, and the readings for Mass. She wanted to be buried in her "wedding dress" a white dress with a pink waist, because her death would allow her to become the bride of Christ. She had also arranged to donate her corneas after her death.

She says to her mother: "Don't shed any tears for me. I'm going to Jesus. At my funeral, I don't want people crying, but singing with all their hearts."

She died on October 7, the Feast Day of the Holy Rosary.

Two days later, hundreds and hundreds of people, especially youths, take part in the funeral celebrated by "her" bishop.

beatification

On September 25, she became the first member of Generation X to be beatified.

Thousands of people, young and old, thronged this event and they have come from all over the world. There are many others connected via internet and TV.

Penitential Act: All Pray

I confess to almighty God, and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and in what I have failed to do; (strike breast # times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary, ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,

First Reading: ECC 1:2; 2:21-23 A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes. Vanity of vanities, says Qoheleth, vanity of vanities! All things are vanity! Here is one who has labored with wisdom and knowledge and skill, and yet to another who has not labored over it, he must leave property. This also is vanity and a great misfortune. For what profit comes to man from all the toil and anxiety of heart with which he has labored under the sun? All his days sorrow and grief are his occupation; even at night his mind is not at rest. This also is vanity. The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

PS 90:3-4, 5-6, 12-13, 14 and 17

If to-day you hear his voice, hard-en not your hearts.

You turn man back to dust, and say, "Return, O children of men." To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, or like a watch in the night. R. You sweep them away like a dream, like grass which is fresh in the morning. In the morning it sprouts and is fresh; by evening it withers and fades. R. Then teach us to number our days,	that we may gain wisdom of heart. Turn back, O LORD! How long? Show pity to your servants. R. At dawn, fill us with your merciful love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us; give success to the work of our hands. O give success to the work of our hands. R.

Second Reading: COL 3:1-5, 9-11 A reading from the Letter of Paul to the Colossians. Brothers and sisters: If you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory. Put to death, then, the parts of you that are earthly: immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and the greed that is idolatry. Stop lying to one another, since you have taken off the old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed, for knowledge, in the image of its creator. Here there is not Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free; but Christ is all and in all. The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Music: Storrington Mass, Martyr Haugen, © 2010, GIA Publications, Inc.

Gospel: LK 12:13-21 The Lord be with you. And with your spirit. A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke. Glory to you, O Lord. (As we say the words, we cross our forehead, our lips, and our hearts to keep Jesus always on our mind.) Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to share the inheritance with me." He replied to him, "Friend, who appointed me as your judge and arbitrator?" Then he said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." Then he told them a parable. "There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest. He asked himself, 'What shall I do, for I do not have space to store my harvest?' And he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall tear down my barns and build larger ones. There I shall store all my grain and other goods and I shall say to myself, "Now as for you, you have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!"' But God said to him, 'You fool, this night your life will be demanded of you; and the things you have prepared, to whom will they belong?' Thus will it be for all who store up treasure for themselves but are not rich in what matters to God." The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Profession of Faith: All Stand and Pray

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven (bow) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Dear Parishioners,

What will help me grow in my faith and spiritual life? How can I enrich the experience of my Catholic faith? How can I become a better Catholic? Where will I find passion and purpose for my faith and spiritual life?

Over 10 years of ministering and experience as a priest have proven something to me. There are certain principles of Catholicism that make a difference in one's faith life. I mean that there are certain things you can focus on in order to find answers to the questions above...

In my priestly ministry, I have seen people grow and come alive in their faith through six principles. Those six simple principles have enlivened their faith experience and increased their vigor for Catholic Christian discipleship. I am proposing these six principles as a vision for our spiritual lives here at St. Malachy starting this Fall. You will be able to remember them by this simple acronym: C.L.O.V.E.R.

Any guesses what C.L.O.V.E.R. stands for? Soon enough I will reveal the principles that stand for each one of these letters, why they are important, and how you can engage them. Stay tuned in on what is happening at St. Malachy and you just might be able to guess what they are!

Every one of us, including me, should be seeking ways to become better Catholics but time and energy is limited. That is why we need to engage the best ways, the most effective principles for becoming better and more spiritually engaged Catholics.

We, at St. Malachy, will grow true disciples for Jesus, we will grow C.L.O.V.E.R.

In Jesus, through Mary,

Father Danda
